Heaven Out of Local Material With Our Little Hatchet.

A white woman named Margaret Poore, living at 3410 F street, has been sent to the insane asylum.

Yesterday Assistant License Agent Raff swore out warrants against Barbara Kelly, Edward Turner, and Maria Du Bois for keeping unlicensed houses.

Maj. King, of the cruelty to animals society, yesterday applied for a warrant against Col. Snellaker, of the Conique, because he had advertised a prize to the boy who would eat the hottest pie. He was told there wasn't any pie law.

The Ladies Union Relief held a pound party in the orphan asylum building yesterday, which was attended by many of our best citizens and the contributions were quite large, embracing every variety of useful articles as well as those which merely please.

Prosecuting Attorney Moore yesterday called the attention of Judge Snell to the fact that witnesses don't always testify on the stand the same as they state to him; and stated that if he discovered any one interfering with his witnesses he would prosecute them to the fullest extent.

Prof. Claughton, of the National university, was presented last evening by the senior class with a beautiful edition of Hawthorne. The presentation was made by Mr. C. T. Yoder, their president, in a neat and appropriate speech, which was responded to by the professor in his usual happy style.

Marriage licenses have been issued to Joseph W. Meintel and Barbara E. Guebler, Hollidaysburg, Blair county, Pa.; William W. Vaughn, jr., Washington, D. C., and Mary Frances Prescott, Exeter, N. H.; George F. Conis and Annie M. Berry, Harry Nelson and Laura Williams, Furnham, J. Shadd and Alice M. Parke, of this city.

While an immense block of granite was being hauled up Four-and-a-half street yesterday, on a six-horse team, the wagon broke down at the corner of G street southwest while crossing the track of the Metropolitan street railway, and for some time blocked up both tracks, rendering it impossible for the cars to pass either way. Finally it was moved, so as to allow the cars to pass, but it is left in the street all night.

Maj. King, on behalf of the association for the prevention of cruelty to animals, paid over yesterday to Lieut. Gessford the sum of $10 as a reward to Officers Williams and Branson, of the Metropolitan police of the first report, for their energy in capturing John Mills, colored, who in May last, in a fit of passion knocked a horse's eye out with a stick, and then left the city, but eventually captured at night in his bed in South Washington.

AT THE WHARVES.

The following arrivals at the river front are reported by the harbor master: Sloop Wave, Capt. Chiseltine, 500 bushels oysters for market; puny J. A. Harper, Capt. Kelly, 400 bushels oysters; schooner Lizzie Reagan, Capt. Smith, 600 bushels oysters; schooner H. Whittington, Capt. Goff, 500 bushels oysters; sloop G. W. Driver, Capt. Southey, 300 bushels oysters; schooner Martha Travers, Capt. Butler, 500 bushels oysters; sloop Dan Sheets, Capt. Coleman, 500 bushels oysters; puny Chief, Capt. Swann, 600 bushels oysters.

KNIGHTS OF HONOR.

The following officers of Mount Vernon lodge, No. 2,142, Knights of Honor, were elected last evening to serve for the year 1882: Dictator, William C. Thompson; vice dictator, Henry H. Cobill; assistant dictator, John T. O'Brien; reporter, William P. Allan; financial reporter, George A. Green; treasurer, George W. McKee; chaplain, Edward F. Casey; guide, B. F. Mandell; guardian, Matthew Jacob; sentinel, Joseph H. C. Hollins; medical examiner, Thomas A. R. Keech; trustees, William F. Dove, T. A. R. Keech, H. R. Cobill.

POLICE COURT NOTES.

A tall old man dressed in gray, and answering to the name of Winfield S. Hancock, was sent down for ninety days for vagrancy.

Charles Scott, a colored lad, was given sixty days for stealing an umbrella, and fifteen days additional for stealing apples and grapes from a fruit stand.

George Carter was sentenced to sixty days in jail for assaulting James Watkins with an ax.

Annie Murphy was committed for six months in default of $100 bonds, to keep the peace toward her husband, whom she was charged with having tried to poison.

Robert Ryan was fined $5 for profanity.

Charles Colonel, colored, was sent to the workhouse for thirty days for throwing a stone through the window of a barroom, from which he had been ejected.

Richard Horn was sent to the workhouse for thirty days for throwing a stone through the window of a barroom, from which he had been ejected.

George McCauley was sent to the workhouse for three months.

Samuel Alexander, colored, was given sixty days in jail for stealing $8 from Charles Ruffin.

What Women Should Use.
Dyspepsia, weak back, dependency, and other troubles caused no fearful suffering, but Parker's Ginger Tonic makes me feel like a new woman. A great remedy. Every woman should use it. Mrs. Garitz, Pittsburg.

PREMATURE grayness avoided by using Parker's Hair Balm, distinguished for its cleanliness and perfume.

An Immense Invoice
Of Boys' Clothing and Overcoats just received, which we will sell way below former prices. Eisenman Bros., the most prominent clothiers and tailors, corner Seventh and E.

No one was ever more disappointed than an old lady who arrived on the 430 train yesterday afternoon. She had, among the treasures of the "oldest inhabitants" been to Baltimore for her winter cloak. Her daughter, with the wisdom of a later generation, had bought her a new one, and with a saving of railroad tickets, a day's loss, and a cold ride, at Taylor & Hufty's, 933 Pennsylvania Avenue. The old lady's impatient for another winter, that she may follow her daughter's example.

We are Prepared
To offer special prices on Overcoats of every description. Eisenman Bros., the most prominent clothiers and tailors, corner Seventh and E.

BOTTLED GOODS.—Old whiskies, brandy, rum, and wines, all guaranteed pure, at Thayer's, 515 F street.
